

MEET OUR Bishop

Bishop Jones, a native Baltimorean and third generation preacher, accepted the call to the Ministry and founded Family Life Global Ministries, Inc., "The City Of Prayer," in 1996. Bishop Jones has been in ministry for over fifty years, not only as a prolific preacher and teacher, but also as a singer/songwriter. He began working in ministry at the age of eight as a musician in his family's church: Greater Hope COGIC. From there he went on to become the Minister of Music at Bethel AME in Baltimore, while being a member of the world renowned singing group: The Jones Brothers.

In 2000, God led him to spread the gospel abroad, which birthed out Life Fellowship International. In 2006, Bishop Jones was appointed board member of African Americans Reaching Africans (AARAMA); which currently oversees 200 pastors and congregations in Kenya East Africa. In 2015, Bishop Jones along with twenty-three other influential men in Baltimore City were awarded the Men of Valor Award.

Since 1996, Family Life Global Ministries has continued to flourish with the motto "Reaching the world for Jesus Christ one family at a time." Through his pastoral leadership marriages have been saved, souls have been set free, and lives have been transformed. Bishop Jones has a heart for the community and participates in a plethora of outreach opportunities; including but not limited to his partnership with churches locally and as far as Kenya East Africa. He is a theology graduate from the Washington College at Howard University and Morgan State University. In 2020, during a Global pandemic, Bishop Jones earned two master's degrees from the Washington Baptist Theological Seminary.

At his core Bishop Jones is a servant who is committed to his family, church, and community. He is married to his high school sweetheart, the former Mary Wyley, from this union they have one lovely daughter Jasmin Kordey Jones and one grandson Kingston Barrett, whom he affectionately calls "Man". We thank God for the life and leadership of Bishop R. Alonzo Jones.
